Rules of Conduct

- Senior students may finish at either 6.00 p.m. or 7.00 p.m/4 p.m. or 5 p.m on Wednesdays.. They must decide in advance which time they will be finishing and indicate this to the supervisor. Should a student wish to leave early on any occasion, she should bring a note to the supervisor, giving the reason for her early departure.
- Students are advised that the supervisor is in charge of the study and they are expected to co-operate fully with her/him at all times.
- Study is carried out in silence. Communication between students is not allowed. • Students should bring all books, copies, etc. to the study hall at the beginning of the study period. They may not visit the locker areas once study has begun. • Food, drink and chewing gum are not allowed in the study hall. Snacks and/or drinks should be taken during the thirty minutes free time before study begins or during the ten minute study break.
- Mobile phones should be switched off and placed in view on the desk.
- Students may only leave the study hall to use the toilet with the permission of the supervisor. Only one student at a time may leave the study hall. She must return in a reasonable time.
- Only students who co-operate fully with the supervisor will be accepted for study in school. A warning will be given to any student who infringes the rules. A second breach of the rules will result in the student being asked to withdraw either for a period or permanently from study. Parents will be notified of this. Should a pupil be asked to leave in this way in the first part of the term, a refund of half the study fee will be made. No refund will be given for students who are asked to leave in the second half of the term.
